

MISS FAHNESTOCK WEDS MR. STOKES

Marriage Occurs in Bethlehem
Chapel of the Washington Cathedral.

DR. STIRES OFFICIATES

Miss Margaret Caperton Is
Maid of Honor and There
Are Five Bridesmaids.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The marriage of Miss Margaret Fahnestock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fahnestock, to Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., U. S. N. R., took place today in the Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest Stires of St. Thomas's Church, New York, and a reception followed at the residence of Mrs. Fahnestock in Massachusetts avenue.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William Fahnestock of New York. Miss Margaret Caperton, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Caperton, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids included Miss Caroline Andrews of Flushing, L. I.; Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Helen Cannon and Miss Marion Tiffany of New York and Miss Catherine Harlow of this city.

King Stokes acted as best man and the ushers were William H. Mauley, U. S. N. R.; Lieut. Robert W. Patterson Jr., U. S. N. R.; H. D. Greenhaw, U. S. N. R.; Lt. Townsend Lavender, U. S. N. R.; and John Brooks, U. S. N. R. The bride, Miss Fahnestock, had a large house party for the wedding, her guests including Miss Caperton, Miss Campbell, Miss Cannon and Miss Tiffany, all of New York, and Mrs. William H. Mauley, U. S. N. R., and Mrs. Frederick Elbridge of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Stires, all of New York.

Other guests here from New York for the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Fahnestock, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Phillips, William Fahnestock, Jr., and Joseph Larkin.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Fahnestock entertained at dinner for the wedding party and the guests, and later the entire party went to the National Theatre, where they occupied four boxes. Today Mrs. Fahnestock gave a luncheon at the Shoreham for the same guests, and this evening she gave a dinner followed by a theatre party for them.

WEEKS-WEIR.

Son of Justice Weeks Is Married to Brooklyn Girl.

Richard Franklin Weeks, son of Justice Weeks, and Miss Janet Weir, daughter of Mrs. James Weir of 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, were married yesterday in the First Baptist Church, Brooklyn. The Rev. Dr. Frank M. Townley performed the ceremony.

There were no attendants and only the parents of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks will live in Washington, where Mr. Weeks is connected with the War Trade Board.

WHITMORE-PHILLIPS.

Cadet in Aviation School Takes a Boston Bride.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

Boston, April 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Phillips of 64 Bedford street, Mattapan, announce the marriage of their son, Charles A. Phillips, Jr., to Miss Helene Jeanette Phillips, of Cadet Aviation School, Ithaca, N. Y. There were no attendants, and the ceremony took place at the Phillips residence for a short wedding party. The bride will remain with her husband's relatives in New York city until he receives his commission as an aviator.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Talbot of Brooklyn announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth T. Furman, to Eliot

DIED.

AYER—Ellen Manning, widow of the late Frederick Ayer, at Thomaston, Ga., April 3.

BRECHHAUSEN—George, aged 41 years, of 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, died at his residence, 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, April 3.

CAMPBELL—Mrs. Ann, services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank Campbell), Friday, 11 A. M. Auspices Actors Fund.

CORRIGAN—William, died at his residence, 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, April 3.

CRANE—Mrs. Ann, services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH," Broadway and Sixty-sixth street (Frank Campbell), Friday, 12:30 noon.

CRANE—On Tuesday, April 3, Titus E. Crane, from his late residence, 130 Warren street, Friday morning, April 5, 9:30 A. M. to St. Peter's Church, New York, and was buried in the same place.

CRANE—Very suddenly, in Paris, on the 28th of March, Mary Grinnell, wife of Edward H. Grinnell, daughter of the late William F. Grinnell.

CRANE—Very suddenly, in Paris, on the 28th of March, Ruth, daughter of Edward H. Grinnell.

CRANE—On April 2, John J. Smith, 60-year-old husband of the late Esther Smith, died at his residence, 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, April 3.

CRANE—On April 2, John J. Smith, 60-year-old husband of the late Esther Smith, died at his residence, 1111 Dean street, Brooklyn, April 3.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

A successful sale for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital for Children under the auspices of the Junior members of St. Christopher's Guild of that hospital was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John S. Rogers, 23 East Seventy-fourth street. Tables attractively arranged were placed in the drawing rooms and on them were displayed articles suitable for summer houses, which were sold by girls who wore sunbonnets and aprons with their summer costumes. In the dining room girls dressed as waitresses sold refreshments, tea and cigarettes. The sale was under the direction of Mrs. William W. Hoppin, Jr., Mrs. Charles Bowring, Mrs. George P. Cammann and Miss Helen Coghill, officers of the guild; Miss Cornelia Livingston and Miss Margaret Stone, junior members.

Princess Enrico Russell has returned to the St. Regis after a visit in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crocker and Miss Helen Crocker left New York yesterday for their home in Burlingame, Cal., where they will join Count and Countess Andre de Lamoignon, who were married here last week. A member of the French Flying Corps, with his bride, was Miss Ethel Crocker, who will shortly leave for France.

The French Ambassador, J. J. Jusserand, will attend on Saturday afternoon the exhibition of paintings now being held at the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, 677 Fifth avenue, for the benefit of disabled French soldiers. He will make the speech of the nation on Thursday for Liberty. The reception will be given to President Wilson. There will be music by Maurice Dumesnil, pianist, and Jacques Thibaud, violinist. Tickets for the afternoon will be 13.

Charles B. Alexander will entertain at dinner this evening.

Miss and Mrs. John H. Mauley, daughter of Mrs. J. Brockbridge Gibson, will be married to Walter E. Dickinson of this city on April 20 in St. Andrew's Church, Yonkers, N. Y.

The Amateur Comedy Club will give two short plays, "Paint and Personality" and "The Door," on the evening of April 17 at the Garden Theatre for the benefit of the Junior War Relief Society. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Walter E. Lambert, chairman, Mrs. J. Rich Steers, Mrs. George Phillips, Mrs. J. Brockbridge Gibson, Mrs. Lawrence B. Egan, Mrs. Lewis G. Morris, Mrs. W. R. K. Taylor, Miss May Moulton and Miss Lucile Lambert. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Lambert, 113 East Thirty-fifth street.

Tucker Sayward of Mount Vernon station will take place in the early summer. Mr. Sayward is well known in Boston and New York banking circles through his connection with the banking house of Kidder, Peabody & Co.

Announcement was made here today of the marriage Tuesday in Los Angeles of Elsie Allen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Allen, to Miss Charlotte Maxam of Princeton, Ind. Mr. Winchester is a member of the New York Harvard Club. His bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Maxam. Maxam has recently been in charge of the children's orthopedic clinic in Los Angeles.

EHRET-MITCHELL.

New Yorker Is Married in Port Chester, N. Y.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., April 3.—Announcement was made today of the marriage of William Ehret of 15 Grace street, Port Chester, N. Y., to Miss Genevieve E. Mitchell of South Norwalk, Conn. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the Summerfield Methodist Church, Port Chester, on Monday evening, the Rev. William H. Burghen, the pastor, officiating. Ralph E. Ehret, son of the bridegroom, and Miss Genevieve Mitchell, daughter of the bride, were the only attendants.

The couple are now on a honeymoon trip in Washington. They will also stop at Niagara Falls on their way home. Upon their return they will reside in Port Chester.

VOORHEES-VOORHEES.

Ceremony Is Performed in Plainfield, N. J., Church.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Suydam Voorhees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Voorhees, and Edward T. Voorhees, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. H. Voorhees, both of Plainfield, N. J., took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church in Plainfield, the Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelle officiating.

Miss Helen Voorhees was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Helen Voorhees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. J. and Eleanor Browning of Camden, N. J.; Romeyee Voorhees was best man and the ushers were Kenneth Voorhees, Douglas Davis, Warren Garretson and Lawrence Snyder.

The bridegroom is a member of Battery 118, Heavy Field Artillery, stationed at Camp McClellan, and the couple will return there in a few days.

LADY CUTTING TO MARRY.

Geoffrey Scott of British Embassy Is the Man.

Information comes from Europe that the marriage of the widow of W. Bayard Cutting, Jr., Lady Sybil Cutting, daughter of Lord Desart, to Geoffrey Scott of the British Embassy at Rome, will take place this week in Florence, Italy. Her marriage to the late W. Bayard Cutting, Jr., took place about eight years ago when he was in the American diplomatic service. He died in Egypt. Since that time his widow has been living near Florence.

Announcement of the engagement was made by her parents, the Earl and Countess of Desart, in London quite recently, and also has been made known to her friends here by her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting of 24 East Seventy-second street. Lady Sybil Cutting before her marriage to Mr. Cutting was known as Lady Sybil Cuffe.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

Miss Natalie Du Vivier and John A. O'Connor to Wed.

Mrs. Charles Girault Du Vivier of 155 East Seventy-second street has announced the engagement of her second daughter, Miss Natalie Du Vivier, to John A. O'Connor of this city. The engagement will be of interest here and in Paris. Miss Du Vivier belongs to an old French family for many years prominent in New York. She is a daughter of the late Charles G. Du Vivier and a niece of the late Edward Du Vivier. On her mother's side she is a niece of L. Edouard Du Vivier and she is related to the Montant and Brugiere families, for generations prominent here. Her brother, Joseph Du Vivier, who married Miss Eleanor Keyes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward L. Keyes, is now with his wife in Paris. Another brother, Edward Du Vivier, married Miss Marie Delmonico.

Mr. O'Connor is a son of the late Thomas H. O'Connor, for years prominent in the financial world of New York and San Francisco. He is a widower, his wife having been Miss Frances Hrus of Boston and Tarrytown. Mr. O'Connor was graduated from Columbia. The wedding will take place early in May in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

DAYTONA SEASON IS NEARING END

Hotel Ormond Is Closed and Guests Occupy Houses and Go to Seabreeze.

GOLF LINKS ATTRACTIVE

William Lindley and Keith
Henry Have Narrow Escape
in Airplane Fall.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

DAYTONA, Fla., April 3.—Many guests of the Ormond with the closing of that hotel, today distributed themselves among the houses of Daytona and Seabreeze. More than a score of them will spend several weeks at the Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Stevens, Miss Dorothy Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Chapman were among the Manhattan contingent arriving at the Clarendon from Ormond. Among others were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Fay and Dr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Hatch of Northport, L. I.; Mrs. Clifford Robinson, Miss Adrienne Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCann, Jr., of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lyle of Plainfield.

Horace D. Taft, brother of ex-President Taft, left for his home at Westport, Conn., after today's work with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Wallace at their winter home. Mr. Taft is a golf enthusiast and played regularly over the Ormond course.

Mrs. Herbert J. Chambers of Mount Vernon was the dinner guest at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Others improving their scores lately include Miss Paula M. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. M. Butler, of New York. The Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Bore leaving by motor for their home at Woodmont, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stockings were dinner guests at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Miss Margaret M. Alexander of Brooklyn is passing three weeks at the Clarendon. Joining friends at the Clarendon this evening were Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooper of Greenwich.

While flying in a Curtiss machine yesterday afternoon William Lindley of Ray Shore and Keith Henry, a student, fell several hundred feet, but luckily neither one was badly injured.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Miss Stevenson of Montreal Talks About Rehabilitating France.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 3.—The bathroom of the Greenbrier was thronged with sojourners this evening, when Miss Margaret W. Stevenson of Montreal talked on the rehabilitation of devastated France. Motion pictures were shown of the work that has been done to rebuild towns ruined by the enemies, and of what further needs to be done. Miss Stevenson is a member of the American Committee for Devastated France, and has done much work for the Allies. She is stopping at the Greenbrier with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York. To-day she hopes to return to France soon, to continue her work with the Red Cross.

WASHINGTON DINNERS.

Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere Entertain.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Brazilian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere, who returned from a New York visit yesterday, were guests of honor at dinner this evening of the Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere. Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of the governor of New York, will arrive here on April 14 to be a guest at the Brazilian Embassy.

Mrs. Snell, wife of Representative Burt Snell of New York, entertained a company at luncheon today.

Mrs. Curt H. Reisinger and Mrs. Harry W. Rockwell of New York and the former's young daughter, Edna, are spending a few days in Washington on their way to White Sulphur Springs, where they will be joined next week by Mrs. Reisinger's father, James H. McKee. Mrs. Reisinger is a granddaughter of former President Benjamin Harrison.

Mrs. Russell Harrison entertained them at luncheon today and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee entertained at dinner for them.

VILLAS FOR U. S. SOLDIERS.

Paris Singer Builds Them for Wounded Officers.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PARIS, France, April 3.—Paris Singer and Addison Mianer left for New York this evening. Mr. Singer, who has been in this country since last year, although son of the founder of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has invested $250,000 in building villas in the last few weeks, and in June will build ten large country houses which he intends to fill with wounded officers next winter. He owns four villas in Europe, all of which have been turned into hospitals and have four sons and a daughter enlisted in the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills Field of New York arrived Tuesday and are looking for a villa site upon which they will build for next season.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Weir of New York, who spent the winter in Miami, Fla., the Baldwin cottages on Sunset avenue yesterday for their occupancy here next winter.

NURSES WANT RECRUITS.

New Jersey State Association's Meeting in Atlantic City.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 3.—Members of the New Jersey State Nurses Association in their sixteenth annual convention here today at the Hotel Chalfont formulated plans to interest young women of the State in their profession in order to keep up their numbers, reduced by the wholesale enlistment of nurses in the Red Cross work at home and abroad. A third of the members of the association are now in the Federal service. Propaganda will be spread

BRADY PLAY SEEN UNDER NEW NAME

Is Same "White Feather."
With Almost Entirely New
Cast of Characters.

Philadelphia Society News.

Mrs. William Love Rice of New York Is Dinner Guest.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schenck of Baltimore are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Schenck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Smucker, at Greenbrook.

Mrs. William Love Rice of New York was the guest of honor at a dinner given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Handel Morgan of Chestnut Hill, followed by a box party at the opera.

Members of the East Quaker Club gave an attractive Easter dance this evening at the Roosevelt, at which the number 150.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCann, Jr., of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lyle of Plainfield.

John Price Wetherill, Jr., entertained a matinee party at the Mask and Wig Theatre, 1414 Chestnut street, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Wallace at their winter home. Mr. Taft is a golf enthusiast and played regularly over the Ormond course.

Mrs. Herbert J. Chambers of Mount Vernon was the dinner guest at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Others improving their scores lately include Miss Paula M. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. M. Butler, of New York. The Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Bore leaving by motor for their home at Woodmont, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stockings were dinner guests at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Miss Margaret M. Alexander of Brooklyn is passing three weeks at the Clarendon. Joining friends at the Clarendon this evening were Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooper of Greenwich.

While flying in a Curtiss machine yesterday afternoon William Lindley of Ray Shore and Keith Henry, a student, fell several hundred feet, but luckily neither one was badly injured.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Miss Stevenson of Montreal Talks About Rehabilitating France.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 3.—The bathroom of the Greenbrier was thronged with sojourners this evening, when Miss Margaret W. Stevenson of Montreal talked on the rehabilitation of devastated France. Motion pictures were shown of the work that has been done to rebuild towns ruined by the enemies, and of what further needs to be done. Miss Stevenson is a member of the American Committee for Devastated France, and has done much work for the Allies. She is stopping at the Greenbrier with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York. To-day she hopes to return to France soon, to continue her work with the Red Cross.

WASHINGTON DINNERS.

Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere Entertain.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Brazilian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere, who returned from a New York visit yesterday, were guests of honor at dinner this evening of the Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere. Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of the governor of New York, will arrive here on April 14 to be a guest at the Brazilian Embassy.

Mrs. Snell, wife of Representative Burt Snell of New York, entertained a company at luncheon today.

Mrs. Curt H. Reisinger and Mrs. Harry W. Rockwell of New York and the former's young daughter, Edna, are spending a few days in Washington on their way to White Sulphur Springs, where they will be joined next week by Mrs. Reisinger's father, James H. McKee. Mrs. Reisinger is a granddaughter of former President Benjamin Harrison.

Mrs. Russell Harrison entertained them at luncheon today and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee entertained at dinner for them.

VILLAS FOR U. S. SOLDIERS.

Paris Singer Builds Them for Wounded Officers.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PARIS, France, April 3.—Paris Singer and Addison Mianer left for New York this evening. Mr. Singer, who has been in this country since last year, although son of the founder of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has invested $250,000 in building villas in the last few weeks, and in June will build ten large country houses which he intends to fill with wounded officers next winter. He owns four villas in Europe, all of which have been turned into hospitals and have four sons and a daughter enlisted in the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills Field of New York arrived Tuesday and are looking for a villa site upon which they will build for next season.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Weir of New York, who spent the winter in Miami, Fla., the Baldwin cottages on Sunset avenue yesterday for their occupancy here next winter.

NURSES WANT RECRUITS.

New Jersey State Association's Meeting in Atlantic City.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 3.—Members of the New Jersey State Nurses Association in their sixteenth annual convention here today at the Hotel Chalfont formulated plans to interest young women of the State in their profession in order to keep up their numbers, reduced by the wholesale enlistment of nurses in the Red Cross work at home and abroad. A third of the members of the association are now in the Federal service. Propaganda will be spread

BRADY PLAY SEEN UNDER NEW NAME

Is Same "White Feather."
With Almost Entirely New
Cast of Characters.

Philadelphia Society News.

Mrs. William Love Rice of New York Is Dinner Guest.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schenck of Baltimore are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Schenck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Smucker, at Greenbrook.

Mrs. William Love Rice of New York was the guest of honor at a dinner given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Handel Morgan of Chestnut Hill, followed by a box party at the opera.

Members of the East Quaker Club gave an attractive Easter dance this evening at the Roosevelt, at which the number 150.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCann, Jr., of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lyle of Plainfield.

John Price Wetherill, Jr., entertained a matinee party at the Mask and Wig Theatre, 1414 Chestnut street, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Wallace at their winter home. Mr. Taft is a golf enthusiast and played regularly over the Ormond course.

Mrs. Herbert J. Chambers of Mount Vernon was the dinner guest at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Others improving their scores lately include Miss Paula M. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. M. Butler, of New York. The Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Bore leaving by motor for their home at Woodmont, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stockings were dinner guests at the Clarendon this evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, and the Links of the Clarendon Club are crowded with followers of the royal sport. Cecil Hodgman of Manhattan and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York, are spending a week at the Clarendon.

Miss Margaret M. Alexander of Brooklyn is passing three weeks at the Clarendon. Joining friends at the Clarendon this evening were Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooper of Greenwich.

While flying in a Curtiss machine yesterday afternoon William Lindley of Ray Shore and Keith Henry, a student, fell several hundred feet, but luckily neither one was badly injured.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Miss Stevenson of Montreal Talks About Rehabilitating France.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 3.—The bathroom of the Greenbrier was thronged with sojourners this evening, when Miss Margaret W. Stevenson of Montreal talked on the rehabilitation of devastated France. Motion pictures were shown of the work that has been done to rebuild towns ruined by the enemies, and of what further needs to be done. Miss Stevenson is a member of the American Committee for Devastated France, and has done much work for the Allies. She is stopping at the Greenbrier with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Butler, of New York. To-day she hopes to return to France soon, to continue her work with the Red Cross.

WASHINGTON DINNERS.

Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere Entertain.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Brazilian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere, who returned from a New York visit yesterday, were guests of honor at dinner this evening of the Italian Ambassador and Countess Di Cellere. Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of the governor of New York, will arrive here on April 14 to be a guest at the Brazilian Embassy.

Mrs. Snell, wife of Representative Burt Snell of New York, entertained a company at luncheon today.

Mrs. Curt H. Reisinger and Mrs. Harry W. Rockwell of New York and the former's young daughter, Edna, are spending a few days in Washington on their way to White Sulphur Springs, where they will be joined next week by Mrs. Reisinger's father, James H. McKee. Mrs. Reisinger is a granddaughter of former President Benjamin Harrison.

Mrs. Russell Harrison entertained them at luncheon today and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee entertained at dinner for them.

VILLAS FOR U. S. SOLDIERS.

Paris Singer Builds Them for Wounded Officers.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

PARIS, France, April 3.—Paris Singer and Addison Mianer left for New York this evening. Mr. Singer, who has been in this country since last year, although son of the founder of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, has invested $250,000 in building villas in the last few weeks, and in June will build ten large country houses which he intends to fill with wounded officers next winter. He owns four villas in Europe, all of which have been turned into hospitals and have four sons and a daughter enlisted in the war